The official Oscar submission this year from Germany, THE TEACHERS' LOUNGE is pulse-pounding pure entertainment. Watching her fellow teachers interrogating, manipulating and accusing her students after money goes missing from the teachers' lounge, Carla Nowak decides to take it upon herself to catch the thief. That single decision ignites a firestorm around her as she struggles to keep her moral compass aligned as the accusations & threats close in around her, and the line between truth and lies begins to blur. One of the best new movies of the year.
